

Ross' Vela coach of year in Three Rivers Athletic Conference

News-Messenger report

March 6, 2021

Fremont Ross' Juan Vela is coach of the year for the girls in the Three Rivers Athletic Conference.

The Little Giants won four of seven TRAC games to tie for third. Seventeen wins established a career best in 12 years for Vela.

Ross senior Brooklyn Baptista was a first-team all-conference selection. Sophomores Destiny Robinson and Janiah Holmes were second-team.

Freshmen Carma Johnson and Abby Cahill were honorable mention.

The Little Giants finished 18-6 and earned a sectional crown.

Ross sophomores Kaden Holmes and Anthony Vann were honorable mention for the boys.

Findlay senior AJ Adams is player of the year. Lima Senior's Quincey Simpson is coach of the year.

Notre Dame junior Grace VanSlooten is player of the year for the girls.