Building Hope, Trust and Respect with our Community

Important Opening Day Info

Dear Fremont Community,

Welcome to the 2009-2010 school year! I hope everyone had a safe and enjoyable summer. This year the district will remain focused on improving student achievement, providing a safe and positive learning experience for our students, and strengthening our relationship with the Fremont community.

If you share our desire for quality schools, I encourage you to join me in a continued effort to increase collaboration and build faith and trust within the community. I have listed a number of committees that are comprised of Fremont's stakeholders and are currently operating within the district. If you are interested in engaging in problem-identifying and problem-solving activities and you would like to join a committee, please communicate that fact to me in writing. Please be certain to include your name, address and phone number so that I may contact you promptly. The committees are Operations; Communications/Public Relations; Curriculum Quality Control Council; Finance/Audit; and Policy.

Lastly, I have included information that you may find helpful for the upcoming school year. Thank you and I look forward to working with you and your children this school year.

Sincerely,

Dr. Traci McCauley

Big Changes at FMS

The Middle School will be holding its Orientation/Open House on Wednesday, August 19, 2009. After a brief discussion on areas such as: safety, general building procedures, schedules, lockers, policies, etc., parents and students will be able to walk through the building. You will be able to follow your schedule, locating all of your rooms, and try your locker combination. School personnel will be on hand to answer any of your questions.

Tables will be set up to give you information on various procedures and groups, including lunch pre-pays, busing/transportation, and our Parent/Teacher Organization. We encourage you to participate in the PTO. We appreciate parents' involvement in their child's education process.

Each household should be receiving a letter the week before the Orientation letting you know your child's assigned time to be here. If you cannot make it on August 19, the Middle School will be open from 7:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m., August 20 – August 31. You are free to come in to pick up schedules and tour the building. Just stop in the main office upon your arrival. We are looking forward to the 2009/2010 school year!

FMS is pleased to have Christine Oravets on staff this year. She has been an educator for 22 years. She attended Ohio University and received her Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education in 1987 and completed all her teaching in Cleveland. Curriculum Corner

Over the summer while students get a break away from the routine, teachers get busy honing their skills. This summer Fremont teachers participated in many professional development opportunities at the district to help them better utilize their teaching resources. Elementary teachers together with elementary principals attended additional training to learn how our StoryTown reading textbook materials are designed to help students learn to read at their instructional level. This training included how to use each of the many resources available for students who may need more help. Kindergarten teachers spent three days together preparing for our first year of district-wide full day kindergarten. Also, math teachers in grades seven through high school were introduced to their new textbooks and including all the technology components that provide teaching aides.

Students will return this fall to new textbooks for seventh and eighth grade math, Algebra I and Algebra II, Integrated III, Geometry, Pre-calculus and Calculus. Elementary students will have new Music books. High school science classes in Physics, Chemistry, Physical Science and Intro to Physics will also receive new textbooks. When new textbooks are selected, teachers spend a great deal of time reviewing a variety of choices. The selection of all our textbooks is based on the standards that our students need to know and be able to do. Teachers also use other criteria to evaluate textbooks such as how the books develop the concepts, at what level of complexity, how assessments are aligned to state texts and how student misconceptions can be overcome during the learning cycle. Our new textbooks come with online student additions that students can access either at home or at the library.

A note from Art Bucci, Athletic Director

I would like to share with you some helpful information for the 2009-10 school year and sports seasons.

Parents who are good sports are positive role models within our school and community at large. A good sport knows that the athletic competition builds character and shapes lifetime attitudes. You, in turn, can help by showing our students that by being a good sportsperson helps build integrity, fairness, and respect.

Your display of good sportsmanship will show the most positive things about you and our community; and hopefully, reminding us all that in the end, sport is meant to be fun! As a parent/guardian at our school, your sportsmanship goals should include:

- Developing a sense of dignity under all circumstances;
- Refraining from engaging in all types of disrespectful behavior, specifically taunting, trash talk, and other forms of intimidation;
- Educating other parents and fans to understand the rules of the game and the value of sportsmanship.

Reminder: For entry into any 2009-10 extra-curricular events, all students (grades 7-12) must show their School ID's to attend. Please plan on carrying this with you so there will be no problems.

We hope the upcoming seasons are a rewarding one for you!
